Review

As we near the six-month mark for this Newsletter, I thought I'd review how things are going. It is a mixed picture.

The Income Portfolio is lagging its comparative index, but the Growth Portfolio is outperforming its comparative index.

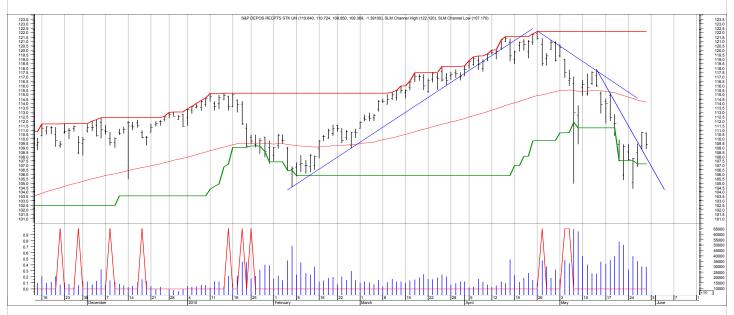

The Income Portfolio is flat for the year, while the Aggregate Bond Index (AGG) is up 2.4%. A big difference. The key reason for the disparity is that AGG is only investment grade bonds without any high-yield or junk bonds. The main holding in the Income Portfolio is PHB, a high-yield ETF. So, perhaps the comparative index isn't really a good comparison, but something has to be used. PHB for its part is down 4.5% for the year.

The chart shows the daily S&P 500 with red smoothed line an 80-day moving average and orange line a relative comparison to the bond market. The lower part shows blue volume and red spikes as possible trading signals.

The two columns to the left show the rankings of the equity oriented ETFs in our database through the previous Friday's close.

These rankings are based on momentum indicators around which we generally want to trade. Our general strategy is to invest with the stronger performing ETFs by investing with the main trend and against the minor trend down. This means that in a bear (down) market, we want to short the funds that rally against their main trend downward. In a bull market, we want to buy during selloffs with the main trend up.

the same time, is up 1.7%, while the comparative index, the Wilshire 5000, is down 0.8%. The difference is a large 2.5%.

So, it is a mixed bag at this stage.

As for the markets, before this correction, they were in gear to the upside. So, I still expect some further rallies in the months ahead to take at least one major index back to recovery highs. The correction, however, must simply runs its course in the meantime.

Descriptions & Disclosures

PORTFOLIO DESCRIPTIONS (pages 2 and 3)

Our guiding goal is to provide the most return with the least risk consistently over time through bull and bear markets.

Income Portfolio, page2: Uses a proprietary selection methodology on all of the monitored bond-oriented ETFs to pick the top ETFs. I then use a proprietary timing model to decide whether to buy, sell, hold, or avoid.

Growth Portfolio, page 3: Uses the same methodologies as in the Income Portfolio, except as it is applied to stock-oriented ETFs.

All portfolios were started on 1/1/10 with $100,000.

Portfolio changes will usually be made at the close on Monday, unless otherwise noted in any emailed hotline update. Issues are normally posted on Mondays by 1:30pm cst.

Portfolios are updated through the Friday close the week before.

Dividends are reinvested in additional shares. Commissions of $5/trade and short-term redemption charges, if any, are applied. Interest is zero for the money market (cash) position.

SUBSCRIPTIONS: To receive ETF Selections & Timing, you may subscribe in one of three ways. You may subscribe on the web site InvestmentST.com using PayPal or call 1-800-800-6563 for Visa or MasterCard orders or send a check to the address on the front page. Subscriptions may be tax deductible.

Unless otherwise noted, the weekly eNewsletter is posted by 1:30 PM central time each Monday, except for holidays and then on Tuesday. It may contain actionable, specific buy or sell advice to take that day at the Monday close in each portfolio. Portfolio data will be updated through the previous Friday's close. Fund symbols, rather than names, are the official identification used for activity.
