Pause After The Surge

Since the stock market's early year correction ended, it has rallied back on up and nears its recovery highs.

We bought on the correction, anticipating its recovery. So, now what?

The market is still in a confirmed bull market. By definition this means that highs are higher than previous highs and lows are higher than previous lows. On the chart below, we see that the high before February's correction hit new recovery highs. The correction ended above its previous lows set last October. It remains in gear to the upside for now.

In addition, the fundamental background still is very positive for stocks.

The Federal Reserve is still easing, still keeping rates at near zero.

WEEKLY REVIEW and PREVIEW

The high-yield fund continues to surge higher, giving the portfolio a nice boost.

No changes last week to the positions.

Income Charts

Each chart shows daily prices (top portion), volume (bottom portion), a moving average (smoothed line on price portion, and red spikes. The spikes show potential places to buy and sell short. If the moving average is trending down, the spike shows a potential sell short. If the moving average is trending up, the spike shows a potential buy. The charts do not show selling or covering signals.

The two columns to the left show the rankings of the equity oriented ETFs in our database through the previous Friday's close.

These rankings are based on momentum indicators around which we generally want to trade. Our general strategy is to invest with the stronger performing ETFs by investing with the main trend and against the minor trend down. This means that in a bear (down) market, we want to short the funds that rally against their main trend downward. In a bull market, we want to buy during selloffs with the main trend up.

The Government is still coming up with recovery programs to help various sectors of the economy, like housing and construction.

Earnings have recovered after plunging in their sharpest ever collapse.

The leading economic indicators are still trending higher for nine straight months.

So, I remain bullish on stocks and still expect the bull market to continue.

Growth Charts

Each chart shows daily prices (top portion), volume (bottom portion), a moving average (smoothed line on price portion, and red spikes. The spikes show potential places to buy and sell short. If the moving average is trending down, the spike shows a potential sell short. If the moving average is trending up, the spike shows a potential buy. The charts do not show selling or covering signals.

Descriptions & Disclosures

PORTFOLIO DESCRIPTIONS (pages 2 and 3)

Our guiding goal is to provide the most return with the least risk consistently over time through bull and bear markets.

Income Portfolio, page2: Uses a proprietary selection methodology on all of the monitored bond-oriented ETFs to pick the top ETFs. I then use a proprietary timing model to decide whether to buy, sell, hold, or avoid.

Growth Portfolio, page 3: Uses the same methodologies as in the Income Portfolio, except as it is applied to stock-oriented ETFs.

All portfolios were started on 1/1/10 with $100,000.

Portfolio changes will usually be made at the close on Monday, unless otherwise noted in any emailed hotline update. Issues are normally posted on Mondays by 1:30pm cst.

Portfolios are updated through the Friday close the week before.

Dividends are reinvested in additional shares. Commissions of $5/trade and short-term redemption charges, if any, are applied. Interest is zero for the money market (cash) position.

SUBSCRIPTIONS: To receive ETF Selections & Timing, you may subscribe in one of three ways. You may subscribe on the web site InvestmentST.com using PayPal or call 1-800-800-6563 for Visa or MasterCard orders or send a check to the address on the front page. Subscriptions may be tax deductible.

The recurring monthly subscription is $24.00. An annual subscription is $240.00. Subscribers receive this weekly eNewsletter. There is no mailed issue. Subscribers retrieve the current weekly issue at the web site InvestmentST.com by logging in using a log in name and password.

Unless otherwise noted, the weekly eNewsletter is posted by 1:30 PM central time each Monday, except for holidays and then on Tuesday. It may contain actionable, specific buy or sell advice to take that day at the Monday close in each portfolio. Portfolio data will be updated through the previous Friday's close. Fund symbols, rather than names, are the official identification used for activity.

GUARANTEE: Subscriptions may be cancelled at any time. Annual subscriptions are refundable for the weekly term remaining with a four-week minimum charge, using a 52-week count. Monthly subscriptions just expire.
