Buy on Rumor and Sell on News

As we all know, the Federal Reserve has begun its quantitative easing round II program (QE II). It will buy some $600 billion of bonds in an effort to expand the money supply, bring down long-term interest rates, and stimulate the economy. So far, however, bonds have tum-bled and the stock market has marked a peak at the announcement on November 4. The week's tale is told on the Scoreboard below.

The chart below shows the S&P 500 and the VIX index (volatility). Over the last year, each time the VIX index fell below 19 and then rallied back above 19, it marked a top. I've circled the two previous times this happened and the subsequent corrections.

The first time this happened the S&P 500 fell about 9% to its

The chart shows the daily S&P 500 with red smoothed line an 80-day moving average. The black is the VIX index. The lower part shows blue volume and red spikes as possible trading signals.

WEEKLY REVIEW and PREVIEW

Things have certainly reversed quickly in the bond market from up to down over the last week.

I will look to make some adjustments in the weeks ahead as the macro environment seems to be changing on QE II.

Income Charts

PHB—high yield ETF.

11/15/10 Pullback to a major uptrend line. If it declines through it, I will look to sell.

11/8/10 Still looking strong.

11/1/10 Still in an uptrend

10/25/10 Needs to hold its intermediateterm up trend line.

10/18/10 Recovery highs.

10/4/10 Take further profits on the rally. 9/27 Take profits and redeploy as noted on page 2.

9/20 PHB is rallying back into resistance. I'll watch for more profit-taking points.

TIP—Treasury inflation protection

11/15/10 Consolidation appears to have changed to profit taking. Sit tight for now.

11/8/10 Consolidation phase. 11/1/10 Continue to hold. 10/25/10 Shot higher the past month. 10/18/10 Inflation fears pushing it up.

PCY—-Emerging Market Sovereign Debt

11/15/10 Dollar has rallied, which has pulled PCY lower. Will look to sell.

11/8/10 Hit the new high. See if the dollar has an oversold rally, which would pull this index lower.

11/1/10 Expecting another new high. 10/25/10 Higher highs and higher lows is bullish.

10/18/10 Nice trade.

10/4/10 Should make a new high, else consolidation period ahead.

9/27/10 Good buying opportunity.

Each chart shows daily prices (top portion), volume (bottom portion), a moving average (smoothed red line on price portion, a relative strength indicator between the ETF and AGG (Aggregated bond ETF) (orange line), and red spikes. The spikes show potential places to buy and sell short. If the moving average is trending down, the spike shows a potential sell shorts. If the moving average is trending up, the spike shows potential buys. The charts do not show selling or covering signals.

The two columns to the left show the rankings of the equity oriented ETFs in our database through the previous Friday's close.

These rankings are based on momentum indicators around which we generally want to trade. Our general strategy is to invest with the stronger performing ETFs by investing with the main trend and against the minor trend down. This means that in a bear (down) market, we want to short the funds that rally against their main trend downward. In a bull market, we want to buy during selloffs with the main trend up.

low. The second time it fell about 15%. I've circled the current one we are in. If the market also declines this time by about 10%, then the low is projected around 110 in the S&P 500. In Dow Jones Indusrials' terminology, that would be a pullback of about 1,100 points or to 10,400.

I actually don't expect that much of a correction this time for a couple of reasons. The main one is that the economy is showing some improvements. Retail is doing better. Job growth is doing better. Interest rates are declining.

So, a pullback is needed to offset investor complacency, to raise some fear, to rebuild the wall of worry, but after that, I expect the market to move higher.

Descriptions & Disclosures

PORTFOLIO DESCRIPTIONS (pages 2 and 3)

Our guiding goal is to provide the most return with the least risk consistently over time through bull and bear markets.

Income Portfolio, page2: Uses a proprietary selection methodology on all of the monitored bond-oriented ETFs to pick the top ETFs. I then use a proprietary timing model to decide whether to buy, sell, hold, or avoid.

Growth Portfolio, page 3: Uses the same methodologies as in the Income Portfolio, except as it is applied to stock-oriented ETFs.

All portfolios were started on 1/1/10 with $100,000.

Portfolio changes will usually be made at the close on Monday, unless otherwise noted in any emailed hotline update. Issues are normally posted on Mondays by 1:30pm cst.

Portfolios are updated through the Friday close the week before.

Dividends are reinvested in additional shares. Commissions of $5/trade and short-term redemption charges, if any, are applied. Interest is zero for the money market (cash) position.

SUBSCRIPTIONS: To receive ETF Selections & Timing, you may subscribe in one of three ways. You may subscribe on the web site InvestmentST.com using PayPal or call 1-800-800-6563 for Visa or MasterCard orders or send a check to the address on the front page. Subscriptions may be tax deductible.

The recurring monthly subscription is $24.00. An annual subscription is $240.00. Subscribers receive this weekly eNewsletter. There is no mailed issue. Subscribers retrieve the current weekly issue at the web site InvestmentST.com by logging in using a log in name and password.

Unless otherwise noted, the weekly eNewsletter is posted by 1:30 PM central time each Monday, except for holidays and then on Tuesday. It may contain actionable, specific buy or sell advice to take that day at the Monday close in each portfolio. Portfolio data will be updated through the previous Friday's close. Fund symbols, rather than names, are the official identification used for activity.

GUARANTEE: Subscriptions may be cancelled at any time. Annual subscriptions are refundable for the weekly term remaining with a four-week minimum charge, using a 52-week count. Monthly subscriptions just expire.
