New Year

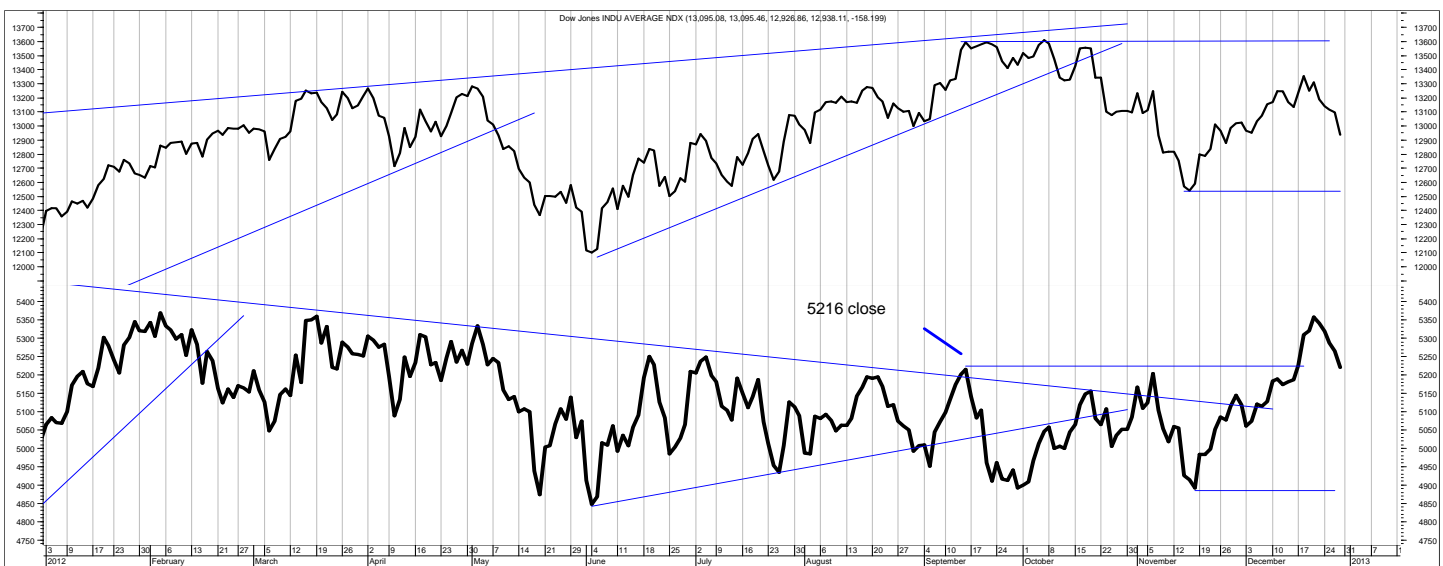

The politicians, with only a few hours left, are still trying, we have to give them that. Beyond that, however, there's not much good to say about the Fiscal Cliff and how Washington is dealing with it and each other. I suppose we can only blame ourselves. We elected them, but more than that, we too want the entitlements, whether it's from keeping the price of milk down or a social security check or a deduction for mortgage interest, etc, etc, etc. There's room for those things, no doubt, but without limits, without some cap, without some means test? I don't think so.

As I've been mentioning, the stock market is reflecting these cross currents and uncer-

REVIEW since last issue

12/31 No changes.

12/24 My data provider (Reuters) stopped reporting the Wilshire 5000 Total Return, so I am now using the S&P 500 Total Return.

12/17 GENC reported 4th q and full year results. Still the cheapest stock out there I'm aware of. Market cap around $70 million and net cash in the bank $85 million. Business should improve in 2013.

Took profits on SILU and raised the buy limit.

WTT authorized additional buy backs of stock. Probably more companies will lean this way, rather than increase dividends in 2013.

12/10 SILU dipped to $1.40 where the portfolio was assigned only 500 shares. Hopefully you got more as it has since spiked to $1.55 for a fast 10% gain. Take profits above $1.58.

I moved the buy limit on TAXI up from $11 to $11.40. Buy today below that.

12/3 New watch SILU a Canadian company lending to the natural resource sector.

For this portfolio, we seek to outperform the Dow Industrials using proprietary timing and weighting formulas of the underlying thirty stocks of the Dow Industrials. We also will use the ETF that tracks the same. The symbol is DIA.

We monitor the underlying individual stocks for buys and sells in order to overweight the portfolio to what is expected to outperform and underweight the portfolio with what is expected to underperform.

REVIEW since last issue

12/31 Stopped out of MRK. The other positions should rally, if the market turns up on a successful Fiscal Cliff compromise.

12/24 No changes.

12/17 Buy the two new positions.

12/10 Buy the new positions noted above.

tainties. First the Dow Transports were lagging the Dow Industrials over the past year. Over the past month, though, the Transports have surged, but now the Industrials are lagging. Quite a mixed picture. Typically things get “in gear” whether to the upside or downside. This market is much tougher to call.

Thanks to all for your support and feedback. We couldn't do it without you and we appreciate you.

Happy New Year.

UNOFFICIAL TRADE

12/31/12 AAPL seems to have successfully tested its lows around $500 over the last few days and should pop on up.

12/24/12 After a one-day jump, AAPL is testing recent support. Needs to clear $535.

12/17/12 Been watching the plunge of a stock known as AAPL. It appears near support at $511. Stop at $500 with upside to at least $550. Nice risk return ratio for traders.

Descriptions & Disclosures

PORTFOLIO DESCRIPTIONS (pages 2 and 3)

Our guiding goal is to provide the most return with the least risk.

The two portfolios were started on 1/1/10 with $100,000. Beginning in 2012 (12/31/11), the official portfolio for measuring the newsletter performance is the Stock Portfolio only.

Portfolio changes will usually be made at the close on Monday (the day this eNewsletter is posted), or if a position is stopped out, the close that day, unless otherwise noted.

Portfolios are updated through the preceding Friday's close.

Stock dividends are paid in cash. Interest is assumed to be zero for the money market (cash) position. Commission costs to buy and sell are assumed to be $10.00 per trade.

The S&P 500 TR (total return) includes dividend reinvestment.
